

JAMES S. BARTLEY,

FARRIER,

From LONDON,

Thirty-one years in practice, part of the time Farrier Major of a regiment of Dragoons.

CURES Diseases in Horses, internal and external, such as Convulsions, Staggers, Strangles, Colds, Surfeits, Glanders, Fevers, Farcy, Diseases in the Eyes, such as Cataract or Cornea, Pole Evil, Fistula, Sprains in the Shoulders, Back, Stifle, Whorlebone, Sinew and many other Parts, Splint, Spavin, Windgalls, Scratches, Ringbone, Sandcrack, cankered and contracted Feet, Botts and Worms, and the Bite of a Mad Dog in Horses, or any other Beast; and many other Disorders too tedious to mention.

Also,—Bleeding, Physicking, Docking, Gelding, Nicking, and Cuping of Horses in the best Manner. Likewise Medicines prepared for Gentlemen at a distance, and proper directions given how to be used. Purges, Diuretick Balls, Pectoral Balls, Fever Balls, & Alternative Balls for Fevers, and Cordial Balls for Race-Horses. Likewise, Mouthing, Biting and Breaking of Colts, and young Horses, in the best Manner, to carry old and young Ladies and Gentlemen, with great Pleasure, Ease, and Safety, or fit for a General to mount and ride at the Head of an Army in the Field of Battle.

Gentlemen and others having any Commands, by sending their orders to the subscriber, half a mile west of Mr. Whiting's store in Worthington, will be waited on with the greatest Dilligence and Punctuality.

By their humble Servant,

JAMES STUDMAN BARTLEY.

N. B. He proposes to attend at Mr. ASAHEL POMEROY's, in Northampton, on Tuesday the 15th inst. and once a fortnight from that day forward.

November 2, 1791.