

Worthington Grange confers degrees on 5

3/14/75

WORTHINGTON — Worthington Grange met on Tuesday night with 22 members and two visitors present. Five candidates for membership, Joan Mollison, Robin Granger, Harriet Lafond, Brenda Bartlett and Judi Fairman were introduced.

The first degree was worked by the regular officers. For the second degree, officers were: master, Marilyn Bartlett; overseer, George Fowler; assistant steward, Edward Drosehn; lady assistant steward, Leah Mollison; steward, Barbara Porter; chaplain, Frances Fowler; lecturer, Florida Granger; gatekeeper, Robert Granger; executive committee, Russell Borst; Pomona, Dorothy Granger; Ceres, Donna Guyette; Flora, Dawn Fairman; community service committee, Bonnie Borst.

At the business meeting, Leah Mollison reminded members that the Grange sugar eat and dance will be April 4. She is also collecting used glasses and hearing aid batteries. Mrs. Mollison also spoke of the various Grange contests, sewing, handwork, as crocheting and knitting, and the patchwork pillow contest. Lecturer Verna Borst spoke of the variety show to be held in Worthington April 11 and Williamsburg April 12.

The Grange voted to buy 40 folding chairs for the Town Hall.

They also voted to give $10 to the Youth Leadership Fund, $5 to the Heart Fund, and $5 to the Easter Seal fund.

Mrs. Borst brought a certificate awarded to this Grange by the Massachusetts State Grange for giving the highest donation to the hospital fund. She announced that Hillside Pomona Grange will meet here in April. Deputy Norman Wilcox spoke briefly. Coffee and doughnuts were served. Mrs. Borst announced that March 25 will be visiting officers night and a good crowd is expected.
