

it was dark and monsters were in the woods. Swimming in the pond behind the house and watching the big kids jump off the swing and platforms on the tree. Watching our dog play with the beavers in the pond across the street. Watching the spray plane dropping poison all over the potato fields and the clothes hanging in the back yard. Being involved with the church youth group and Grange. Halloween at Mr. Rida's haunted barn and haunted Ringville cemetery - (crazy parents setting that up). Just having a grand old time growing up feeling happy and loved.

Gary and Pip Bartlett as Laurel and Hardy. There was an active thespian community in the 1970s. with multiple plays and talent shows performed at the Worthington Town Hall. Gary was an accomplished actor, musician and artist.
