

Worthington
HAT FACTORY.

Charles & Levi Clapp

RETURN their thanks for the liberal patronage they have received from their friends and customers, and hope for a continuance of their favours. They have on hand, and offer for sale,

Warranted Hats

of every description, which they will sell on reasonable terms.

—ALSO—

Ladies & Misses Beaver and

Beaverett BONNETS,

of the newest style, manufactured on short notice. Any article in their line of business will be immediately attended to, and every favour gratefully acknowledged.

On hand—and for sale,

Logwood, Copperas, Verdigrise, Roman and Oil of Vitriol, Hat Trimings, &c. &c. They will exchange with all kinds of Mechanicks.

They wish to purchase

Sheep and Lamb Skins,

with or without the wool. Persons are requested to bring them with the wool on, when green, if convenient.

Worthington, July 2, 1817.

if3w

C. Clapp has a few Notes and Accounts on hand, from three to ten years standing, which he would like to exchange for current Bank bills.