Arthur G. Capen, Treas.

Dear Arthur:

Enclosed please find check for our current dues.

Thank you very much for the notice of meeting but rather doubt if we can be in attendance this year. Please extend our best wishes to those who come.

Maybe this customer list, in the order of which I drove with horse and grocery wagon might be of interest to you. Loaded groceries and other items for which we had taken orders by telephone the previous day by telephone from Cole & Tower store. A typical load would consist of such items as Boots, Shoes, Dress yard goods, Baby ribbon, Kerosene Oil, Twine, Stationery, Bananas, Horse Blankets, Horse Whips, Candy, Tobacco, Mouse traps, Scythes, Rakes and Shovels Etc. Etc. Etc.

Follow me over this all-day route to these homes.
