WORTHINGTON—The Historical Society (WHS) will sponsor Mystery Antiques on Saturday, May 19, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the WHS building. Antiques Appraiser Catherine Rude-Sena, will bring interesting and mysterious objects from her own collection, as well as unidentified objects from the WHS collection. “We hope that our visitors will try to guess the identity or purpose of these objects. We also invite you to “stump” the appraiser with your mysterious antiques,” she said. Antiques appraisals will also be available for $4 per item or $10 for three items.

The first WHS cemetery clean up of the season will be at Ringville Cemetery on Saturday, May 26, 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. Rain date is Sunday, May 27. Call Pat Kennedy at 238-5560 for details.

The WHS, as a member of Historic Deerfield, is providing a pass for free admission to Historic Deerfield. The pass (admits 4) is available to Worthington residents throughout 2007 and can be picked up at the library.
