Founders/Directors: The Schrade Family

Sevenars Concerts, Inc., presents FESTIVAL '92

Founders/Music Directors: Robert Rolande, Randolph and Rorianne Schrade, Robelyn Schrade and David James
Public Relations: Lois Ashe Brown; In-kind services: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Magargal (A.R.T. Directors)
Hospitality: Mrs. Robert Epperly

A Gala Pre-season Concert! July 5, Sunday, 5:00 p.m.

The Hilltown Choral Society returns to Sevenars Concerts for the third consecutive year! Founded in 1957, the group is composed of dedicated hill-town residents, united in their love of singing, under the inspired leadership of Director Sandra Epperly.

July 12, Sunday, 5:00 p.m.

The Schrade family pianists, Robert, Rolande, Randolph, Rorianne and Robelyn Schrade with David James unite for the twenty-fifth festival season. Their individual gifts have won acclaim on four continents in major concert halls, as soloists and with orchestras, in contests, radio and T.V. They will be joined for the second season by the youngest family pianist, Lynelle James, who recently completed first grade at the Chapin School in New York, and concert performances in New Zealand.

July 17, Friday, 7:30 p.m.

The duo, Giverny, with Carol Chelemer, flutist, and Elizabeth Panzer, harpist, offers a performance that is unique compared to other duos of the same instrumentation. They perform original works rather than transcriptions, yet present programs which are well-balanced, accessible and enjoyable to all. Individually, each has won wide recognition for her performances in contests, chamber ensembles, and orchestras, including such Broadway shows as "Sunday In The Park with George" and "The Fantasticks."

July 19, Sunday, 5:00 p.m.

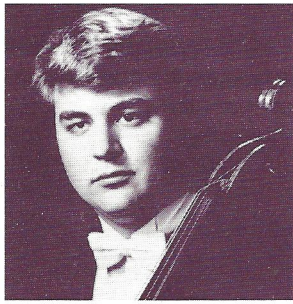

The Eroica Trio, exciting 1991 winners of the prestigious Naumburg Chamber Music Award consists of Adela Peña, violinist; Sara Sant' Ambrogio, cellist; and Erika Nickrenz, pianist. Individually, each has won an impressive number of major prizes, and as a group, founded in 1986, it recently received enthusiastic praise for its performance at Lincoln Center's Alice Tully Hall, and is already earning a reputation as one of America's important new chamber ensembles.

July 24, Friday, 7:30 p.m.

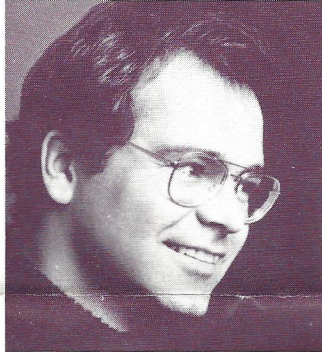

The Boccherini Ensemble includes founder, Jonathan Mishne, classical and electric guitar; Amy Kimball, violin; Rohan Gregory, viola; Chaz Baldwin, cello; and Dan Foote, percussion. By authentically presenting classical, jazz and rock on the same stage (Beethoven, Beatles and more!), the group is enjoying an extraordinarily wide audience appeal. Shortly after its founding, the Boccherini gained international acclaim when chosen from among 1400 applicants to perform for Concerts Atlantique 1990 International European Festival in Geneva, Switzerland.

July 26, Sunday, 5:00 p.m.

Jeffrey Lastrapes, cellist, and Rorianne Schrade, pianist, are each highly acclaimed soloists and winners of numerous awards and contest prizes, resulting in performances with orchestras, recitals, and radio and T.V. appearances. Jeffrey recently represented the U.S. at the International Cello Competition in Chile where he won the bronze medal and audience favorite award. Rorianne performed Rachmaninov's Second Concerto this season in Philadelphia, where she is completing doctoral studies at Temple University.

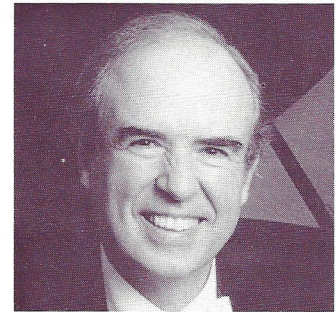

August 2, Sunday, 5:00 p.m.

Pianists Robelyn Schrade and David James recently returned from David's native New Zealand where their concerts (and recording in Wellington) took them to the north and south islands, and included performances by their young daughter Lynelle. Each has received enthusiastic responses from the press and public since their prize-winning solo N.Y. debuts, their much-heralded participation in the Schrade family concert (1980) at Lincoln Center's Alice Tully Hall, and their duo debut there in 1986.

August 9, Sunday, 5:00 p.m.

Robert Schrade, pianist, whose virtuosity and musicianship have inspired headlines of praise from the press and cheers from the concert-going public, performs the festival's finale with a unique program based upon a single theme as expressed by many great composers of differing styles. His long and distinguished career has taken him to many major concert halls of the world, including New York's Carnegie Hall, Town Hall and Alice Tully Hall at Lincoln Center.

◆ Welcome To Our Twenty-Fifth Season? ◆

Thank you for making it possible for Sevenars Concerts to remain "one of the best small music festivals in the U.S.A." (Time Magazine). The landmark Academy, renowned for its beauty and perfect acoustics, was established in 1895 by Russell Conwell, author of "Acres of Diamonds" and founder of Temple University. Your generous support will enable the festival to survive and succeed in its continued mission of service through music! Next season will be our 25th anniversary (1968-1993)!

Hear Ye? Hear Ye?
