WILLIAM C. WITHEROW

WORTHINGTON — Funeral services were held for William C. Witherow Tuesday morning at Mount Carmel Church in Pittsfield with the Rev. Ettore Canzano, assistant pastor, officiating.

Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery in Pittsfield. Bearers were William A. Major, Edward F. Curran, Thomas P. Curran, Donald J. Flaherty, Kenneth S. Fawcett and Joseph M. Delphia.

Born in Pittsfield, he was the son of the late William I. and Mary (Dezzani) Witherow. He was a U.S. Army veteran of World War II and had operated Witherow's Radio and TV Repair Shop on East Street in Pittsfield until his retirement in 1968. He and his wife, the former Ruth Fairhurst, came to live in Worthington on Williamsburg Road at that time.

Mr. Witherow died suddenly of a heart attack on May 14 in Santa Rosa, N. Mex. while he and his wife were vacationing in the Southwest. He leaves only his wife. Contributions may be made to the Heart Fund.
