

WORTHINGTON—SQUIRREL HUNT.—Captain Sumner W. Stone and Capt. John M. Kelley, with 20 men on each side, made the hills and valleys ring Monday and Tuesday, the 10th and 11th inst., and counted the game Tuesday eve at Tower's hotel, where a most delicious supper was served in the best possible manner, and cheerfully paid for by the vanquished. Capt. Stone's counting, 16,935; Kelley's, 8,560.

Grey squirrels are plenty in Worthington. One of C. M. Parsons' boys went out hunting a few days ago, and seeing three greys on one limb, fired and killed the entire party at one shot. If any hunter, old or young, can do better, we should like to hear of it.—Northampton Gazette.
