

waiting to unload.

The squirrels and other animals of all the neighboring fields and woods furnished so-called sport for two small armies of men and boys last Friday and Saturday. A. W. Trow and Fordyce Knapp led the respective parties and after the slaughter a supper was served at the hotel. The Knapp forces won.