

Swim classes start today ^{6/24/75} in Worthington

WORTHINGTON — Swimming classes will be offered at the Swim and Tennis Club this summer. Beginning this week the schedule is: Wednesday from 3 to 5 p.m. junior life saving for young people, aged 11 to 14; Thursday from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. beginning and intermediate class; Friday from 3:30 to 4 p.m. a class for infants, aged 9 months to 2 years; from 4 to 4:30 a class for preschoolers, aged 3 to 5 years. Anyone interested should call Beverly Bowman for information about prices.

HAY FIRE

WORTHINGTON — The Fire Department was called to the Robert Mason farm on Kinnebrook Road on Monday afternoon. About 20 bales of hay were destroyed when sparks from a piece of machinery flew into a bale. No other damage was done.

FEW BLOOD DONORS

WORTHINGTON — The Red Cross Bloodmobile was in town on Monday afternoon, sponsored by the Thursday Morning Coffee Hour Group. Less than 50 people appeared and 33 pints of blood were collected.

Chairman of the effort was Evelyn Powell; typists were Florinda McIlveen and Margaret Morse; nurses were Barbara Dunlevy, Gail Tompkins and Nancy Challet, and assistants were all members of the coffee hour group. Supper for the workers was served by Grange members Verna Borst, Leah Mollison, Cheryl Wheeler, and Joan Mollison, workers.