Charles, Lydis and Sarah. One of the daughters had this to say sbout him, "Grandpa was quite a sport for those days, Quite a horse jock: And in his earlier days, somewhat given to drink. But none of his sons were ever known to take a drink, use tobacco or use profane language.

times not extitively sill to vactaaned

Schuel (my great grandfather) was born Sept. 30, 1805. merried Comfort Osburne. They had six children: Hannah, Sellie, Jacob, All lived to grow up except one - Jecob, I think. Giles and Miles. Sallie was given the family bible (belonging to her grandfather) and she pessed it on to her niece Lena, daughter of Miles, who in turn, gave it to me (Mildred). In the real real trensitions and not be the trens to me

Miles had two children, Lens and Miles Elmer (my father). He is living in Rushford now with my mother Jessie Hadley Worthington. Also, my brother Maurice Worthington lives here and six sons of my brother Harold Worthington (Deceased 1950) live nearby. So the Worthington name is now being carried on by these six boys: Harold, Douglas, Dennis, Richard, Thomas, Timothy and Robert.

on galvest one wint one season and of finished to well define to . aradiomah sid of beren to the sone, Attour nant John Worthington's englared was Beauel, born July 11 March 1 done was Beauel, born July 11 March 10 done demont John Worthington's children was Beauel, born July 11 March 10 done demont John Worthington of Samuel Jul, was born Grandis con, Bennel Jr., wee born

Samuel, Jr. married three times. Hader of the state of the Mene

Devey, what John Worthington, Morn Jen. 20 1771

Devey, What Marthington Carondson of Lt. John Martiffer ton of Carondson of Carondson

Scringfield) was born (1766 or 1771). He died Arail is legg, and left time anite anite Ha Rarried Friedliss spite (born 1754). The ifved hims oblidient Y. Freedom is death and the Corn 1776; They ifved he Freedom is the They it we will be signed in the Freedom is eight miles from Rushford, N. Y. Truly at he cight miles from Rushford, N. Y. Truly at he cight miles from Rushford, N. Y. Truly at he considers were Thaddeus, Olive, Sequel, John, Robecca, Squife