

July 23, 1943.

Honorable Elisha H. Brewster,
Worthington, Massachusetts.

Dear Judge Brewster:

Your letter of July 22 received. I am very happy that you wrote me about these matters.

There is no conveyance from Sarah Brewster to Elisha H.

Relative to the Isaiah Kingman property.

The deed from Francis Benjamin in 1816 is not recorded. There is a deed from Isaiah Kingman to Elisha H. Brewster, conveying all the property to which you refer in your letter and more. We enclose a memorandum of this deed.

We also enclose some further memoranda that we made and which we think will be of interest to you.

We are very glad you wrote about these matters. It has so happened that the last few days I haven't had much to do and I have spent some time in making some investigations, just for the fun of it, and I was very glad to be able, for a few minutes, to turn my attention to something that someone really wanted.

I shall be glad if I may have further suggestions from you. I want to have compiled a lot of material about Worthington and Worthington families and properties, and whatever you are doing along that line is just what I wish someone from every family in town would do, and I am only too anxious to be of any assistance I can in having these things done; so please feel that I regard
