

Suzanne Fisk Obituary

Suzanne Baldwin Fisk 1935 - 2022 WORTHINGTON Suzanne Baldwin Fisk (87) passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 20. Suzanne was born in Springfield, MA and grew up in Longmeadow, MA with her parents, Dr. Edward Baldwin and Marguerite Baldwin. Her late husband, Noyes (Peter) Mayo Fisk Jr. and Sue resided in Longmeadow MA where they raised their four children before moving to Worthington, MA. She leaves behind her children; Jeffrey W. Fisk and his wife Leslie of Rock Island, TN, Timothy N. Fisk and his wife Anne of Soddy Daisy, TN, David N. Fisk and his wife Laura of East Granby, CT, and Leslie F. Figiela and her husband Edward of Worthington, MA. She will be dearly missed by her eight grandchildren; Whitney Fisk and her partner Eric Busse, Afton Sparrow and her husband Coyote Sparrow, Jessica Russell and her husband Jamie Russell, Ryan Fisk, Lindsay Rodriguez and her husband Felix Rodriguez, Daniel Bridge and his wife Tori Bridge, Rachel Ehresman and her husband Xavier Ehresman, and Emily Figiela. There are also three great-grandchildren (with a fourth in the works!); Jordan Russell, Zuk Sparrow and Milli Rodriguez who will all miss their Nana. Sue also leaves behind her sister Joann Baldwin Lexow and her husband Eric of Jamestown, RI. She is preceded by her sister Nancy Baldwin Adams of Chebeague Island, ME. Suzanne graduated from McDuffie School for Girls in Springfield before attending Bradford Junior College. She worked for the American Red Cross in the Springfield administration offices. While her children were in school, she enjoyed working with the Junior League of Longmeadow. Suzanne obtained her real estate license and worked for Trend Realty in Longmeadow. She also started her own business, Kinnebrook Antiques, which she successfully ran for several years. Sue was a regular participant in numerous clubs and attended area antique shows. Intermittently through the years Sue would also work side-by-side with her husband Peter at his business, Plumb Auto Supply in Northampton, MA. Later in life Suzanne resided in Worthington, MA and treasured her time in the Berkshires. Documenting her family's genealogy was Suzanne's passion and it took her to several New England states as well as a trip to England in search long passed relatives. Over the years Suzanne would visit various churches, town halls and local cemeteries in her quest for information on her ancestry. She was active with the Council on Aging and enjoyed golfing and socializing at the Worthington Golf Club. Suzanne was an active member of the Worthington Congregational Church. Suzanne will be remembered fondly by her family, friends and the countless people her life touched over the years. Her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren will miss her dearly and cherish the memories of their time with Mom/Nana both in Worthington and the several trips to Florida where she and Peter would invite all the children to come visit. The memorial service will be held at 4pm on Friday, September 9, at the First Congregational Church of Worthington, 159 Huntington Road (Rte. 112), Worthington, MA.
