

In 1972 my dad retired and he and my mother moved back to Worthington and renovated the farmhouse adding central heat, insulation, new windows and much more. Sadly, Dad died in 1976 at the age of 64, but Mother

...and our two daughters, Alexandra McCallum Burr and Mary Franklin Burr, both of whom are architects, and both have married architects. And though Ann and I live officially live in Williamstown, we spend as many days as possible at the farm.

Franklin G. Burr

Harriett Andrus Burr

stayed on at the farm she loved for the next thirty years during which she was on the committee that started the Maples elder Housing and served on the board of the Health Center among other activities. After her death in 2009, I inherited the farm along with my wife Ann McCallum,...

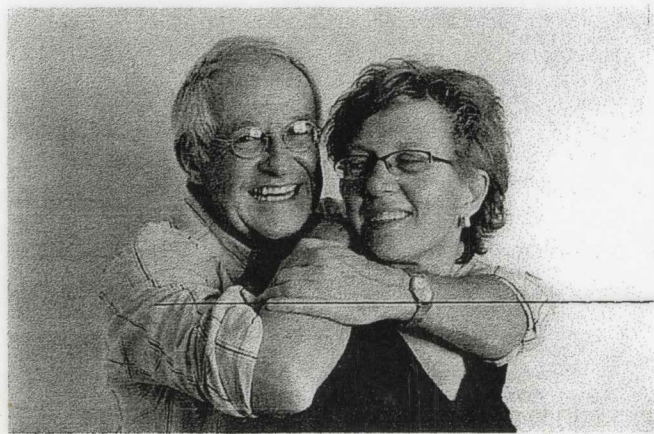

Alexandra McCallum Burr and husband Allen Slamic.

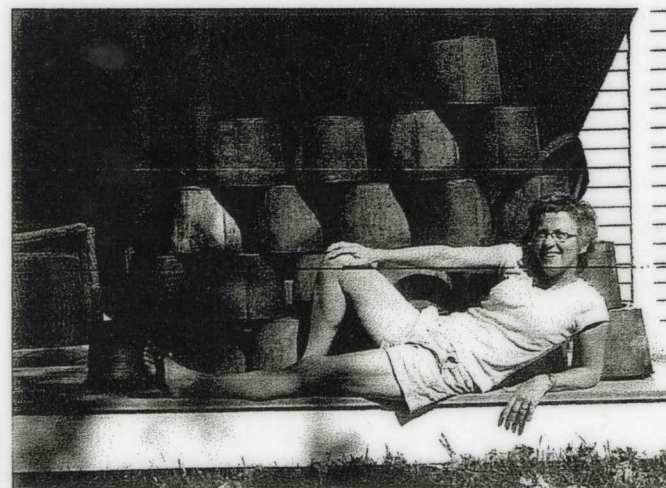

Mary Franklin Burr

And so far, I have three little grandsons.

Andy and Ann

Ann's massive sugaring operation.

