

The following has nothing to do with your inquiry, but we can discuss it in reference to Isaiah Kingman and thought it would be interesting. The wondering is not so good: we may not have been und right.

Isaiah Kingman ~~to Shubael Proutie~~ of Worthington, Tutor, to Phineas Proutie of Worthington, Yeoman, #870.
March 29, 1809.

30-117

A certain tract of land lying in sd Worthington containing six acres bounded as follows viz. beginning at the Northeast corner of Doctr Brewster's land at a town road & running southerly on the east line of his land nineteen rods to a stake & stone thence easterly fifty rods & one half rod, thence thence westerly on the south line of sd road fifty rods & one half rod to the first mentioned corner also on other tract lying in sd Worthington containing five acres ~~of~~ to the some more or less bounded as follows viz beginning at the Southwest corner of Lemuel Fuller's land at a town road & running westerly on the line of sd road fifty nine rods to land owned by the sd Town of Worthington thence Northerly on the line of the sd Towns land to land formerly owned

Worthington Historical Society, Inc.

Worthington, Mass.